Public Comments: Tom Mutchler inquired if Consumer's Energy had been reported for not reimbursing Fire Departments on power lines. Ken Dennings asked about the Accreditation for the Police Department if it was the same 104 Standards no matter the size. Tom Mutchler expressed that more information was needed to make educated decisions for budgets and salaries. Ken Dennings suggested a compensation panel to decide salaries and he agreed a sound system was needed for the Hall. Ken Dennings said he was glad that the Board listened to the various groups pertaining to the Septic Ordinance. Tom Mutchler inquired if a sewer system had been looked in to. Frank Homola inquired about turning over the US Fish and Wildlife permit to the HLCASIRO. Ken Dennings and Tom Mutchler shared their opposition to the idea of transferring the US Fish and Wildlife permit to the 501c3. Ken Dennings noted his request to have just one program for SI made months ago. Linda Udy suggested the Board not take action on Swimmer's Itch
