SUPERVISOR'S REPORT JANUARY 11, 2022

- On December 15th I hosted Honor Security Company for a tour of our township hall for the purpose of securing recommendations and cost for regulating access to our hall during business hours.
- On December 16th I was pleased to join our Gerrish Township Fire/EMS personnel and families for their annual Christmas Party. Great food catered by Beachwood and Santa arrived with gifts for children of staff members.
- Friday December 17th along with Trustee Oppy we rang the Christmas bell at Family Fare for the Salvation Army.
- On January 6th I chaired the regular monthly township work session to prepare for tonight's meeting.
- On Monday January 10th I chaired the special meeting of the GLUA in our township hall. We were pleased to announce the donation of $100,000 for assistance of qualified low-income residents to assist with hooking-up to the sewer.
- 2022 Marina contracts for patrons were mailed on Monday January 10th. Marina fees for the 2022 season are due by March 1, 2022.
